6:00 p.m. Chief of Police Discussion Update

Chairman Kevin Boette proposed having a work session on September 25, 2013 to discuss what might be helpful to the Oral Board regarding Lyndeborough demographics and other information which might be useful as they interview the candidates.

Citizens Panel Discussion Update

Members of the Panel are Mark Schultz-Lyndeborough Citizen with Police background, Burton Reynolds-Town Official, Bob Rogers- Town resident, Geoff Brock-representative for the School Board. Mike Decubellis and Karen Grybko were nominated as representative for the Budget Committee.

VOTE: Chairman Boette made a motion to accept Mike Decubellis as the representative for the Budget Committee, Selectman Byam seconded the motion.

Citizen's Panel will be take place at the J.A. Tarbell Library. Time and date to be determined.

Other:

Interim TA, Mr. Reynolds requested the Board waive the interest charges (approximately $300) for September and October on property Map/Lot 247-003-000 which is due to be deeded by the town. Property owner is refinancing and this will assist in obtaining financing to bring tax status to current and avoid having to deed the property.

VOTE: Chairman Boette made a motion to waive interest of approximately $300 for September and October to assist property owner to secure financing. VOTE in favor was unanimous.

Appointments:

6:30 p.m. Life Saving Award Presentation-Officer McClellan

Lt. Rainsford Deware presented Officer McClellan with Life Saving Award which he was recommended for by Chief Mark O. Reams of Amherst Police Department for his life saving actions on August 29, 2013. Officer McClellan has been credited with saving the life of a motorist whose vehicle left the road and landed on its roof and was taking on water. Officer McClellan along with a firefighter from Derry jumped in the water, broke the glass, and removed the driver from the vehicle.
